Churches Of Christ Top In Growth

By LOUIS CASSELS
The fastest-growing major religious body in the United States is the Churches of Christ, an Evangelical-Protestant communion which has its greatest strength in the South and West.

Its membership increased by 135 per cent—from 1,000,000 to 2,350,000—between 1950 and 1965 the latest year for which comparative figures are available.

During the same period, a UPI survey showed, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints Mormon-registered a membership gain of 61 per cent, to make it the second fastest-growing major body.

Other fast-growing denominations were the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, 60 per cent; the American Lutheran Church, 58 per cent; and the Southern Baptist Convention, 58 per cent.

The average growth rate for all Protestant bodies during the 15 year span was 31 per cent.

Of the 16 Protestant denominations with membership larger than one million, only one showed a decline during the period. That was the American Baptist Convention, which had two-tenths of one per cent fewer members in 1965 than it had in 1950.

Growth rates for other denominations were: Episcopalian Church, 35 per cent; United Presbyterian Church, 31 per cent; Lutheran Church in America, 29 per cent; National Baptist Convention, Inc., 24 per cent; Methodist Church, 15 per cent; Disciples of Christ, 9 per cent; United Church of Christ, 8 per cent; and National Baptist Convention of America, 1 per cent.

If any pattern can be discerned in the statistics, it is that the highest growth rates are found in the more-congregative Protestant bodies, which place a great emphasis on personal evangelism.

Negro ministers of 10 Protestant denominations are attending a "Saturday School for preachers" in Winter Park, Fla.

The inter-denominational school, which may be the first of its kind in this country, was founded to provide a "second chance for education" to ordained ministers without seminary or college degrees.

The three-year curriculum includes English, Bible content, church history, homiletics, preaching techniques, pastoral care, comparative religion, and theology.

The faculty, which serves without pay, is drawn from Protestant churches in the Orlando-Winter Park area, and from the staff of Rollins College at Winter Park.

Another educational venture believed to be the first of its kind will get underway in Rochester, N. Y., next fall. It's a training program for ministers to serve the inner city. What makes it special is that it will be conducted jointly by St. Barnard's Catholic Seminary and Colgate-Rochester Divinity School, an American Baptist seminary.

From South Africa's best-known Christian layman, author Alan Paton, comes a plea for churches throughout the world to support non-white peoples in their struggle for a better deal.

"The churches of the world, and especially the churches of those countries in which racial problems are acute, must at all costs instigate and encourage and support all movements for social justice," Paton says in the current issue of the documental review, quarterly published by the world council of churches.

The author of "Ory The Beloved Country" added:

"Love without justice is a Christian impossibility, and can only be practiced by those who have divorced religion from life, who cherish concern for justice as politics, and who fear social change more than they fear God."

122ND AMA PRESIDENT—Milford O. Rouse, M.D., Dallas, Tex., is installed as the 122nd president of the American Medical Association in Atlantic City, N.J., by Wesley W. Hall, M.D., Reno, Nev., chairman of AMA board of trustees.

An investment in Your Future

ATTEND CHURCH

The STRENGTH of a Nation...

At this time, our thoughts are turned to our nation and the war that was fought to bring freedom to our land. Pictured here is a monument to the leader of our people at that time. The people were willing to give their lives that we might be free from tyranny, and have the right to worship as we please. God was with us then as he was with the children of Israel when Moses led them from Egypt. Upon receiving their freedom they sang... "The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him." Exodus 15:2

Help keep our Nation strong by relying on the strength of the Lord. Attend Church Regularly.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Johnny Podres Does Good Job Chips And All

By VITO STELLINO

UPI Sports Writer

The uniform was different and the elbow had a few less bone chips in it—but it was really all the same for Johnny Podres Friday night.

There was an important game to be decided and he went to work to get it.

"He's a real pro," beamed manager Mayo Smith after Podres went 7-1-3 in pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 4-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox in the opener of their three-game series.

The victory enabled the crippled Tigers to move within 4 1/2 games of the league-leading White Sox—in contrast to the 8-1/2 games back they would have been if they'd lost it.

Podres, who spent his entire 12-year career with the Dodgers winning the important games until he was sold to the Tigers last year, was making only his third start of the season.

Not Regular Reliever

Podres has been used mainly as a reliever by the Tigers but he claims he's just not a relief pitcher.

"There's no way I'm a relief pitcher," he said. "I'm not the kind of guy who can throw every day. I'm starting to get my arm in shape again. I'll be okay."

Podres has been a question mark ever since June of 1964 when he had an operation on his elbow for the removal of bone chips. He pitched just three innings that season and was 7-6 in 1965. The Dodgers pitched him in just two innings last year before selling him to the Tigers in May. He posted a 4-3 record with Detroit.

The Tigers bombed Chicago starter Tommy John for three runs in the first inning to decide the game. 6-4 in the first game of a two-night doubleheader and the second game was suspended by curfew with Baltimore leading 1-0 after five innings. It will be finished today.

Washington-Minnesota game was rained out.

Philips, Giants Split

In the National League, Chicago beat Cincinnati 7-5, St. Louis edged New York 4-1, Philadelphia whipped San Francisco 10-3 in the first game of a two-night doubleheader and San Francisco took the second game 12-3. Pittsburgh topped Atlanta 3-1 and Los Angeles edged Houston 5-4.

Tony Conigliaro's towering three-run homer in the sixth inning paced Boston to the triumph over Kansas City. The shot over the left-field wall came off loser Jim Nash and snapped a 1-1 tie. It enabled Gary Bell to win his fifth game in six starts since coming to the Red Sox from the Cleveland Indians.

Vic Davalillo's two-out single off Wally Bunker in the 14th inning gave Cleveland the victory over the Orioles. It scored Max Alvis, who singled and advanced to second on a walk. George Culver, who went 3-1-3 in the first game, got the victory to boost his record to 5-0.

In the second game, Baltimore was leading 1-0 on Boog Power's second inning home run when the game was stopped. Dave McNally pitched five-hit ball for the Orioles.

Don Mincher batted in three runs and George Brunet and Minnie Rojas combined to pitch a seven-inning, tie-as-the-California Angels beat the Yanks.

Pitchers Not Easy Outs Any More; Osteen Cracks A Homer

By FRED McMANE

UPI Sports Writer

The No. 9 spot in the batting order isn't as reliable as it used to be.

There was a time managers could practically count on the pitcher's spot in the lineup to be an automatic out, and even if a

"Hear ye, Hear ye!" And so began the greatest story of our nation . . . the story of our Independence, of our forefathers' fierce pride and fighting spirit for the freedom, the rights and privileges they believed belonged to men. This freedom is our shining inheritance our banner among nations . . . to be carried and preserved with watchful vigilance by each generation of Americans. This is the debt we owe this great land of ours. Pridefully do we discharge it so that joyfully we may always celebrate this anniversary of Independence.
